

UNIVERSITY OF GLOUCESTERSHIRE

at Cheltenham and Gloucester

IRIS RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES

Semester 1

Dimity Podger
University of Brighton

'Educating for Sustainability from the perspective of a faith organisation: a case study of the American Bahá'í Community'

Date: 16th October 2009, 12pm - 1.30pm

Venue: University of Gloucestershire, Fullwood House
Room FW015, The Park Campus, Cheltenham, GL50 2RH

Kim Polistina
University of Glamorgan

'Health, well-being and Sustainability education in the South Wales Valleys and the cultural aspects of sustainability'

Date: 27th October 2009, 2pm - 4pm

Venue: University of Gloucestershire, Room TC217, Oxstalls Campus
Oxstalls Lane, Longlevens
Gloucester, GL2 9HW

Rolf Jucker
Swiss Foundation for Environmental Education

'Systematic change in an age of stupid. Lessons from Switzerland'

Date: 4th December 2009, 12pm - 2pm

Venue: University of Gloucestershire, Fullwood House
Room FW015, The Park Campus, Cheltenham, GL50 2RH

The International Research Institute in Sustainability (IRIS) focuses on people's responses to sustainability and on participatory research methodologies which support change for sustainability. IRIS works across a range of disciplines and sectors and focuses on the following research strands:

- Transformational Learning in ESD
- Sustainability, Health and Well-being
- Monitoring and Evaluation in Sustainability
- Leadership and Organisational Change for Sustainability
- Professional Practice in Sustainability

Refreshments will be provided. RSVP to Ms Seek Pang at spang@glos.ac.uk