

External Library Membership

University of Gloucestershire library can be used by members of the public for reference and study purposes but to borrow books you will need to become a member.

External library membership is available to readers who have an interest in the book collections held at FCH, Oxstalls and Park campus libraries. Various types of membership, at various prices (see table below) are available to meet the needs of external readers.

Who can join?

Typically, independent scholars, local professionals, local residents, and former students and staff of the University can apply to become individual members. Educational, religious, charitable and business organisations can apply to become corporate members.

How many items can I borrow?

- Individual members: up to 5 items at any one time
- Corporate members: up to 15 items at any one time

What other services are available to me?

- You can use the library's self-issue terminals when you borrow books.
- You can access the Internet and some online resources.
- The library's automatic renewal system will notify you by email when items need to be returned.
- You can use the library's photocopiers and printers once you have set up an account.
- You will have out-of-hours use of the library using your ID card for door swipe access.
- You can use the library's inter-library loan service to borrow items not in the library's collection (see charges below).

How long is the membership?

- One calendar year (renewable)

How much does membership cost?

- Individuals: £50.00
- Graduates and former staff of the University of Gloucestershire: £35.00
- Local businesses: £120.00
- Local schools, charities and churches: £70.00

Regulations

- These memberships relate to library services and facilities and do not entitle you to other university facilities or benefits.
- It is essential to read the Library Guidelines and Regulations document: <http://www.glos.ac.uk/life/libraries/pages/librariesguidelines-and-regulations.aspx> and the IT Acceptable Use Policy <http://www.glos.ac.uk/docs/download/Key/itaup-18-04-18.pdf> By joining the library you agree to abide by these regulations. You also agree to abide by and to observe copyright licensing laws.

Campus library subject collections

The University of Gloucestershire library consists of three campus libraries: Francis Close Hall and Park are in Cheltenham, and Oxstalls is in Gloucester. The campus libraries support courses based at those campuses. Your subject interest is likely to decide which campus library you will mainly use, although your membership is valid for all three. Broadly, the subjects located at each campus are as follows (there is some overlap):

Oxstalls	FCH	The Park
Accounting and Finance Business Studies Drama and Performing Arts Hospitality, Tourism and Events Law Marketing Sport and Exercise	Advertising Art and Design Biology Creative Writing Criminology Education English Language and Literature Geography Health and Social Care History Landscape Architecture Photography Psychology Religion, Philosophy and Ethics Sociology	Advertising Computing (Creative and Technical) Graphic Design Interior Design Journalism Media Music Product Design

Applying for external library membership and further information

If you think an external membership is for you, please download a copy of the application form (see link on previous webpage). Fill in the form as fully as possible and return it to the address on the form. The appropriate payment will need to be received through the Online Store (instructions on application form) and any required proof of ID (see table above) received before the application can be processed.

If you are not sure whether external membership exactly fits your requirements, or whether some other form of access might be more suitable, please email your query to libmemberships@glos.ac.uk or phone 01242 714415.
