

Declaration of good health and character

Healthcare student declaration

- To satisfy the requirement of your professional/governing body, you must provide a health and character declaration.
- You must declare if you have been convicted of any criminal offence or issued with a formal caution.
- You must declare if you have been subject to any adverse determination that your fitness to practice is impaired by a professional or regulatory body (including those responsible for regulating or licensing a health and social care profession).
- You must declare any changes in your state of health and wellbeing that could impact your ability to practice effectively as a student

I declare that my health and character are sufficient to enable me to practice safely and effectively and confirm that the information submitted at the time of starting this programme of study was true and accurate. I understand that if I do not inform the University of Gloucestershire of any changes to my circumstances this could jeopardise my place on the programme and/or prevent me from registering/graduating at the conclusion of the course
